CRITERION I – CURRICULAR ASPECTS
1.1 Curriculum Planning and Implementation
1.1.1 Institution has the mechanism for well planned curriculum delivery and documentation. Explain in 500 words
The range of teaching and learning methods used at JIMS includes lectures, case studies and presentations on strategic and contemporary issues, simulations, quizzes, assignments, contests, competitions and practical projects. A strong emphasis is laid on the use of technology in learning. Further enrichment is provided by way of guest lectures, workshops and seminars on current corporate issues and challenges is generated. The faculty acts and works in close association with the students to help them gain a better understanding of current economic and non-economic issues and studies. Students are taught to comprehend live corporate situations while also grasping a more realistic approach to decision making. The pedagogy lays emphasis on increasing the human skills through clear conceptual understanding of subjects, with complete exposure to industrial practices. Getting geared up for the highly complex and challenging business environment, calls for a method of learning that helps students comprehend the intricacies of the subject. To make the learning process easier and more interesting, the institute adopts various teaching methods and tools. An extensive use of teaching aids like LCD, overhead Projectors, slide projectors and video, is made by teachers and students alike to encourage a better understanding of the corporate concepts. The Institute aims at creating a homely atmosphere for all its students, even if they are staying away from their families. This is the reason why there is the concept of "mentoring" at the Institute. Under this concept, each student is allotted a "Mentor"(a faculty member of JIMS) who helps him not only academically but also emotionally regarding any problem that he may face in any walk of life.
